VOL. IV. NO. 110.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, MAY 10, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

ENCHANTER'S FAST RACE.

Eugene Leigh's good three-year-old Duke of Haven won another race—his second at the Lakeside meeting—yesterday. He was in the third event, a mile dash, and opposed to Official, Floronso and three other three-year-olds. The Duke outclassed the lot, but was hardly a 1 to 3 chance. Floronso or Official promised to give him an argument. But they didn't, and the Duke won in a catch-me-if-you-can sort of way by a length. The boys all seemed to have waiting orders and sauntered down the back stretch. There was no pace and the Duke won as he chose all the way.

A fast lot assembled in the fifth race, a three-quarter dash. Out of it came a good looking contest. Enchanter and Newsgatherer were about equal favorites around 8 to 5, but Indra and Flotow were both smartly played. Enchanter, off in front, stepped the first half in 47½ seconds. Indra with Flotow, a bad actor, made up a lot of ground and on the turn for home was within striking distance. But Enchanter was too fast and running truly, won a clever race in 1:13½.

Lizzie R, a 40 to 1 chance, won the first race, and Meddler, a natural 1 to 2 chance, easily captured the second. Cushing's Loyalist—Shadow filly, Eva Wilson, thanks to Bloss' good handling, was the lucky one in the fourth, and Deyo, heavily played at 5 to 1 by a wise contingent, staggered home in front of Headlight in the last event.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman of last Wednesday says: "Bookmaker George Rose has been sued for divorce by his wife upon the grounds of infidelity, and his life's partner asks to have the $10,000 piece of property at Washington and Devisadero Streets set aside for her use, $5,000 for attorney's fees and $500 per month alimony pending trial of the case. After that she desires a reasonable amount of alimony. Mrs. Rose pleads that her husband intends to leave the state in about six weeks, and before he leaves she wants a bond given for the obligations imposed upon him in the decree of divorce. George Rose is one of the best-known bookmakers in America. He has the field book privileges at both tracks, and also has books in the big betting ring. His friends assert that he has been particularly fortunate in his business, and that he is worth at least $300,000. When he left his wife some months ago he did not forget her in a financial way. It is said that since he has been absent from home he has allowed Mrs. Rose $100 a week, besides paying her dry goods bill. Rose will not make a contest to the suit, it is thought. He is anxious for a legal separation, because as he told his friends, his life during the past few years has not been a happy one. Rose is willing it is stated, to give $5,000 to Mrs. Rose. He asserts that she is worth $20,000 in her own right, and claims that he has not a great deal of ready cash. If, however, she demands the full amount set forth in her complaint, he may make a contest on that point. "We have been trying to have this matter settled very quietly," said Mrs. Rose. "I have nothing to say at present. I might say a great deal, but at this time it is not necessary for me to make a statement. The complaint speaks for itself."

A peculiar point about the crack colt Lobos is that he was foaled when his mother, a Cheviot mare, was but three years of age, and Lobos will not be two years old himself until about May 15. That he should run half a mile early in March in 0:47½ speaks pretty well for the baby galloper. The dam of Lobos was very speedy, but met with an accident before she ever went to the post that necessitated her retirement.

THE CALIFORNIA CAMPAIGN.

This week's issue of the Spirit of the Times says:

"A former member of the Spirit staff, who has spent the winter in California, under date of April 25, summarizes in the following pithy paragraphs the Pacific coast meeting:

"The racing here this winter has been much better in every respect than heretofore. The attendance has been unusually large all the time and the ring has averaged twenty-two books every day, and while Riley Grannan and "Pittsburg" Phil have not been here, there has not been a dearth of big speculators, such men as David Gideon and George Wheelock, reinforced by a host of others, tending to make business lively in the ring. Of course, there has been the usual talk of a scandalous character, which appears to be the normal condition of affairs at a long meeting. In nearly every case, however, when the thing was sifted out it only developed a large crop of surmise and nothing else. What is really needed here is a meeting of the bookmakers and heavy bettors, such as was held at Pinkerton's rooms in New York a couple of years ago, and quite incidentally, of course, an address such as was delivered on the occasion referred to. To my mind it would be found a perfect panacea for all the ills that find their inspiration in irresponsible and loose talk.

"There were several good horses here, and one or two which have pretensions to high class. Altamex, belonging to Burns & Waterhouse, was, before he broke down, the best horse in California and a tip top in any company. He was fast, could stay the route and carry weight. Traverser, who won the Derby, is very fast, but essentially a front runner. He handles weight well and is likely to beat more horses than beat him. He will soon be shipped east for his handicap engagements. The Roman and Fleur de Lis, two good horses that have eastern handicap engagements, would have an excellent chance at the weights could they be shipped and reach their destination all right. Fleur de Lis has not been doing any too well lately, and it is quite possible she may remain in California. Whether or not Mr. Boots will send The Roman east I am not advised.

"The plungers and bookmakers have not had a monopoly of the money distributed here during the season, the general public having had a much larger finger in the pie than in former years. In other words the greatest good to the greatest number has been the result, and this is as it should be."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Breeder and Sportsman of last Thursday says: "Sam Hildreth yesterday secured first call on the services of Jockey Dick Clawson for the season of 1898, Atkin & Lottridge relinquishing their contract on the now celebrated lightweight. The terms we did not learn, but the firm that gave the lad a chance to get to the front would not be likely to let their prize go without being rewarded substantially."

H. L. Frank has purchased McLight for a well known Montana horseman and W. D. Randall will campaign the Macduff horse. $1,700 is said to be the price paid.

Dr. Rowell recently fired Yemen, Captive, Grannan and St. Lee for Sam Hildreth. Benamela was gelded. This lot will be turned out until next winter.

Hardy Campbell has purchased of A. J. Joyner the brown colt Mr. Clay, 2, by Darebin—Miss Clay, by Hindoo, for $2,500.

Judge Joseph A. Murphy left San Francisco for St. Louis Sunday night.

Winner—B. f. by Deceiver—Devonia.

Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly, but under the whip. The next three were driving hard. Lizzie R was wretchedly ridden. She was far the best and made her field look cheap in the last furlong. She has usually run out in the past but did not try to do so to-day. Rose L stood a long drive gamely. She had a lot of bad luck in the race. Watch her. Elsie G weakened when the pinch came. She was away on the outside, raced around her field and showed a sharp turn of speed. Rosayannah did not act as badly at the post as she did in her previous race. She may be a fair filly. Lemoon was short. She sprawled about in the last furlong. Overami was poorly handled. She has worked well and can be put on the tab.

Overweights—Falomacita, 3½ pounds.

5554 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—Ch. g, 7, by Long Tow—Meddle.

Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won well in hand; it was a drive for the place. Meddler was the best and always held his field safe. He acts well for Morgan and got a flying start. Diggs showed to be in form. He raced with Meddler the first part and had something left at the finish. Green Jacket was obliged to go around his field. He about ran his race. Throw Fastig's race out. He does better at a distance. The race was between the first three all the way.

Winner—B. c, by Whistle Jacket—Ada D.

Off at first break to a good start. Won in a gallop; second easily after a drive on the turn; third well in hand. It was a bad race. All the boys seemed to have waiting instructions. The Duke just sauntered in front all the way. Turner rode him nicely. Floronso was not sharply hurried. Watch him. He is a good colt. Official got the worst of the break. Gray rode him poorly, too. He was in and out and messed about the entire journey. Herman Kahn collapsed when called on.

Overweights—Tessie L, 3 pounds.

Change in weight—Duke of Haven, 3 pounds on.

Time, 12½, 24½, 36½, 49½.

Winner—B. f. by Loyalist—Shadow.

Post 20 minutes. Start poor. Won cleverly. The next three were hard driven. Eva Wilson was the best, well ridden and off flying. She must be a good filly to stand the hard usage she got at the post. Bloss used every effort to get away well and was in front in every break. Mouzeltoff had no excuses and ran her race. Morgan rode her hard all the way and used his whip unsparingly through the stretch. Grand March ran a fair race and Espirage a good one. The latter had a lot of bad luck. Riches acted green at the post. Miss K is of no account. Anna Held was heavily played, but could not keep up at any stage of the race.

Scratched—Appeal, 107.

Winner—B. g. 4, by Carnegie—Banana.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden but out to the last ounce; second, third and fourth driving hard. Indra was, perhaps, the best horse. He was off on the outside and obliged to go around his field, swerved at the head of the stretch but finished gamely when straightened out. Enchanter is a very fast horse. He was fortunate in getting away though and always had clear sailing. Newgatherer did not run his race. He had little or no speed and was hard ridden all the way. Watch Flotow. He ran a cracking good race; was a trifle short and is ready to win. It was a bad acting lot at the post.

Winner—B. f. 3, by Hayden Edwards—Carmencita.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. First four driving hard. A tired lot at the finish. Deyo came with a rush the last furlong. Sheppard was driving her all the way. Headlight ran a really good race. He and Sutton ran each other to pieces. The former seemed to be winning easily at the head of the stretch, but collapsed in the last seventy yards. A mile is about as far as he cares to go. Sutton seemed to be a little short. He is in winning form. Globe II did his best. Harry Shannon has bad legs and they hurt him. He was never dangerous. The last three cut no figure. Scratched—Barataria, 91; Croesus, 104; Utah, 86; Nimrod, 111.

Winner—B. g. 3, by Longstreet—Exile.
Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second and third also driving. Frank Thompson was shut off at the first turn and lost half a dozen lengths. Was in deep going next to the rail all through the stretch. Lord Zeni quit in the run home. Komurasaki tired the last sixteenth. Banished was in best footing all the way. Was tiring at the end.

Overweights—Miser Dance, 4 pound.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Midlothian—Hinda Dwyer.
Start good. Won easily; mild drive for place. Millbrae was best, well handled and had no obstacles in his path. Is quite a fair colt. Spinner is a coward and quit at end. Was used a lot. Lona Marie, outclassed on speed, closed stoutly. So did Ko Ko. Watch him. Rosa was unlucky and poorly ridden. She is in good condition. Pongo had no chance under the ride he got. Idomeneus ran a fair race. When good he can do better.
Scratched—Potente, 110.

Winner—B. f. 4, by Wildidle—Rosetta.
Start good. Won driving. Dolore was best at the weights. She is good and a stayer. Star was weakly ridden. Is in good form and up to a distance. Ban was short and will be improved by this race. Is due in his class. Girl was cut off on both turns, but made up ground after each interference and is in good form. Sea Spray made up ground under trouble. Is fit and with a stronger rider should be considered. Outside of O'Fleta the others do not count in this company.

Winner—B. c. by Sir Modred—Ethel.
Start good. Won in a hard drive of three horses. El Mido ran the best race. He favors a route and is full of courage. Obsidian is not true, though he was closing stoutly at the end. A bad ride caused him much trouble. He was cut off too, as the barrier rose. He is fit. Hooker ran his race, had no excuses and is in good condition. Watch San Augustine. He is but a sprinter, but is good and should be tabbed. Parasseuse is but a dasher and was outclassed too.

Winner—Ch. c. 3, by Flambeau—Flam.
Start good. Won ridden out. Flandes was lucky, likes a route and is at his best. Candelaria was very badly ridden. Was interfered with on the turns and cut off as he essayed to go through on the back stretch. Throw out his race entirely. Del Paso, too, suffered from incompetent handling and interference on both turns. All around, the race will not do on the basis of actual form.

Winner—B. f. 4, by Racine—Aurelia II.
Start good. The entire field was driving hard at the finish. Sly was best and though ridden out had something to spare at the finish. She is in good form. Was lucky in getting through. Chappie ran a good race. Was a good horse at end and lucky too. O'Connell wasn't. He was used a lot against San Mateo and quit at end. He seems to be fit. The same applies to San Mateo. Watch the Sport. He ran a smart race. Was well ridden and lucky though. Peixotto was viled ridden and had an easy race. He isn't far from fitness. Tab him.

Winner—B. f. by Midlothian—Paloma.
Start good. Won handily. Rowena was best and had clear sailing throughout. Step About ran an honest race. She was short and will do to bear in mind. Suscol is good just now. He was badly managed, can travel a longer route and is likely to join the winning division soon. Castake ran to the mark. Amasa was tangled up at the send off. Has good speed for a sprinting distance in all but the best company.
